

Bocconi Alumni Community 2019 Board Elections

ACCEPTANCE OF ROLE

ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESPONSIBILITIES RELATED TO THE ROLE

Each Member of the BAC Board, through such role, aims to demonstrate their involvement, support and commitment to Bocconi University and its Community.

With the acceptance of this two-year assignment, the Member undertakes to fulfill, to the best of his/her ability, the requests and responsibilities connected with membership of the BAC Board. This commitment also includes:

- participation in the meetings of the BAC Board and the Leaders Conference.
The Alumnus shall lose this role if absent from at least 50% of the sessions of the body (in total) for each year of electoral term. Remote participation as such or audio conference is permitted at meetings.
Each Member of the BAC Board shall attend the Leaders Conference, unless specific impediments are promptly communicated and shared with the BAC.
Each Member shall participate in the BAC Board by providing his/her opinions and advice and therefore supports the BAC through the formulation of recommendations and suggestions.
- financial support for University initiatives and activities.
Each Member of the BAC Board shall contribute financially to the University and is an active and participating donor in supporting and promoting the initiatives undertaken.
- a commitment to raise awareness in the community.
As a Member of the BAC Board, the Alumnus/a shall consolidate his/her role in the community of reference by meeting with other Alumni and participating in local Chapter events.
- commitment to involve other Alumni.
Each Member shall support the University in identifying and involving other Alumni, for example, in activities related to student recruitment, career networking, gifts and identifying potential donors, etc., as well as supporting the BAC Board's various initiatives.
- knowledge and awareness of activities related to the programs promoted by the BAC Board and more generally by BAC.

In actively participating in the Community, honoring these commitments and complying with the related responsibilities are required for the continuous success of the BAC Board in supporting the University. Any Member who deems him/herself unable to participate on these conditions may notify the Director of the BAC to evaluate these considerations together.

I hereby undertake to perform this role effectively and with a sense of responsibility.
